A roll call vote indicated 5 ayes and 0 nays. The Chair declared the motion carried. Voting Aye: Alderman Piznarski, Pyle, Grider, Foy and Szymczak. Mayor Klein then told the audience that the building at 5001 West 79th street is the old Cezars inn, an eyesore that has been in the city for many years and we finally got the courts to approve a demolition order so we will go ahead and demolish that entire edifice and we will then own it.
- CITIZEN'S REPORT The Chair recognized Charles Bandusky, of 8548 S. Lavergne who was concerned what happened to Bakers Square. Mayor Klein told him that his understanding is that they are filing bankruptcy and this is probably only the beginning and other stores will be closing. His second question was 5001 and 85th street what is the status of this building as he thinks it has been empty for over 2 years and hopes there is no squatters there. Frank Kainrath said it is empty and no one is living there. Mayor Klein asked Chief Shore to check it out and also was told it is not boarded up.
- DEPT OF ADMINISTRATION Mayor Klein then invited the Reavis students in the audience to come up front after the Council meeting is adjourned to have their class papers signed either at the front table or at the Council table.
